

Accountant

Well known brand company (US listed) is seeking a good Junior Accountant to join their team. Great career opportunity. Fast paced, competitive environment. Salary around $65k

The Company

This company is well known and is listed in the US. They operate in a very competitive environment where they are a market leader. Operating from brand new offices – this is a nice place to work. They are located in Mt Wellington with easy parking.

The Role

You will be joining a reasonable sized Finance team and will report directly to the Finance Manager.

Your role will focus on cost accruals and ensuring that costs are billed accurately. Additionally, you'll be looking at revenue accruals and the billing side of the business in conjunction with contract terms to ensure that customers are being billed accurately and correctly. To do this, you'll be liaising with Operations Managers, so your exceptional interpersonal skills are vital.

There will be the usual month end type of work as well as budgeting and working with Internal and External Auditors. You'll also be integral in ensuring that the outsourced shared services queries are dealt with.

This is a busy role and one that requires a good accounting knowledge as well as great communication.

Your Profile

You are likely to be at a senior Assistant Accountant level and are looking for that next step in your career with a large company. You may be about to go through PCE2 (in which case this is company is an ATO).

Ideally, you've worked in a reasonable size company previously and are looking to step up your career. What sets you apart is your fantastic interpersonal skills, your willingness to learn new things and your positive attitude.

Salary is circa $65k. For more information about this role, please contact Angela Cameron at Consult Recruitment.

With your strong experience in credit control you have highly developed communication and interpersonal skills. Ideally you have been involved in a similar credit position within a corporate environment.

Please note: Due to high levels of candidate applications, only those with an applicable background will be contacted.
